Wattwise Solutions LLC

Drinking water multiparameter analyzer

WW-WAT-141

A multiparameter analyzer for drinking water monitoring with a seven-inch color touchscreen and digital communication. It combines water quality measurement with local data storage and data export functions. Automatic cleaning and drainage functions support routine monitoring of water quality within a single instrument.

Applications

• Drinking water monitoring

• Water supply systems

Technical data

Interface	Modbus / USB

Specifications vary with model and configuration. Contact Wattwise to confirm suitability, measurement ranges and available options for your project.
Manufacturer: Sheens